

- 4 Read Isaiah 6:5-7. Have you come to a point where you know that God has forgiven your sins, the way He did those of Isaiah? If so, when and how did that happen?

- 5 If you had wanted to talk Isaiah out of his commitment to the unpleasant task that he volunteered for, what might you have said to him? How do you think he would have responded?

- 6 Of all that you know for certain that God has asked you to do, in clear commands from His word, which ones tend to be hardest for you to do?

- 7 Do you sense that God is calling you to do something new, which you've not done before? If so, what is it, and what would it take for you to volunteer like Isaiah did? What needs to happen before you say "So Will I"?

- 8 How do you hope that your life will change as a result of this study?
