

- 5 Mike quoted the Bible commentary that said “The Lord has more need of our weakness than our strength: our strength is often His rival, our weakness, His servant.” Have you ever found your strength to be His rival in your own life? If you are comfortable, share it.

- 6 Mike gave two examples from his life, child-raising and Missions work, that brought him face to face with his weakness. What has God used in your life to make you aware, maybe painfully aware, of your weakness?

- 7 What do you think God is asking of you today, either clearly in His Word or subjectively through His tugging on your heart, that you feel completely unprepared to do? Spend some time praying that His strength would be perfected in your weakness, and that when you are weak, you would be strong.

- 8 As we look ahead to the future of Heights ministry, what kinds of challenges do you think might make us feel weak? What might God ask of us as a church that seems beyond our ability? Spend time praying that in our collective weakness, we would be collectively strong.
